

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the cattle industry is one of the most important segments of the economy of the State of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS the strength and stamina of our nation and state is sustained through the consumption of beef; and

WHEREAS beef raised on our prairies and fattened by the grains grown from our productive soil is the most palatable of foods;

NOW THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOL, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim the week of June 20-26, 1965, as

SOUTH DAKOTA BEEF WEEK

FURTHER, in connection with the observance of South Dakota Beef Week I urge all South Dakotans to join with the South Dakota Cowbelles in making Father's Day one of special observance by serving to him and to his family over which he has given his loving care and protection, a meal comprising his favorite food--beef.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 15th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.
